Chapter 1 by Marcus Rodriguez

Z Apoc

Marcus's point of view

Have you ever thought there would never be a zombie apocalypse. Well that's what we thought and we were wrong. There is 4 of us Marcus (me), Maya Brooks (friend), Jace Williams (friend), and Michael Clapper (friend). So this is where it started. We were having a normal day of school. During A lunch was when someone cut their finger off. So when the ambulance came they grab him and started driving they turned and crashed and everyone in the ambulance got out and they were all bloody and one of them grabbed another person who was walking by and started eating him. That's when chaos broke through. Maya and I were down in the trans. tech room and we saw what was happening outside we all saw everything that was happening through the window and everyone started running trying to get out of the school as they started getting in the school. I grab some tools for me and Maya to use and we ran up to the cafeteria. Michael and Jace were grabbing as much food as they could fit into their backpacks. "Maya they must of went to their lockers" I said.

"Yeah, by the looks of it they did, but we need to help them get outta here" said Maya. As we ran over to Michael and Jace the front doors of the school were busted open. "HEY YAK! IN THE SCHOOL!!!!!!" yelled Michael. "We need to get out of here!" said Maya. We had some others with us but the zombies got them while we were running.

When we got out of the school there were people with hazmat suits on. They gave me the keys to their truck "get it started" (the truck is a f-150). We ran to the truck and I started it while the rest of the group got in. "HURRY UP PEOPLE!!!!" I yelled to the people in the hazmat suits. When they got in I started driving. "My name is Marcus, her name is Maya and the other one with glasses is Michael and the last one is Jace" I said to the people as I drive. "Well my names are classified but my military nicknames aren't, mine is Wolf" said Wolf. "He is Eminem and when I say Eminem i mean the real Eminem" wolf said. I stopped in my dad's driveway. "cool, let's get into the house and get some supplies, I also have a dog that we will be bringing, her name is Zeva" I said. "okay" they all said as we get out of the car. As we walked up to the door I see my dad holding backpacks full of supplies and weapons. I walk to the door "dad!!!! you're alive, i didn't think you made it because i tried calling you but you didn't answer" i said. "let's go Zeva is in my truck and i got all the supplies" my dad said. "okay but we have a truck to so i will drive that truck and follow you" i said as the rest of the group get's into the truck. "We need to get Amelia though" my dad said.

Maya's point of view

We were all getting into the truck while our group leader was talking to his dad. I saw a horde of zombies coming are way "ZOMBIES!!!!" I yelled and the group leader and his dad ran and got into the trucks. As we pulled away we rammed into some of the zombies that's when the rest of the zombies broke through the windows that are in the back by Michael and Jace. Michael and Jace pulled out guns and shot some of the zombies as the group leader started driving following his dad. "thank god that none of us got bitten" said Marcus aka the group leader. We started driving back the way we came "where are we going?" I asked a little confused. "We are going to Jackson to get my sister" said Marcus. "Okay, then we can go to my house after" I said. "My house is back by wilson but that place is over runned even the newscast had to have weapons there to protect them with" said Michael. "Jace why are you so quiet?" I asked. I looked over at Jace and saw he has passed out. "oh" I said.

Eminem's point of view

As we drive I started to rap rap god quietly. I looked over at Marcus's dad. "so what's your name anyways" I asked him. "My name is..." he said. "I'm me and Wolf" said. I continued where I left off on rap god and I heard him say "WOLF SHUT UP already" wolf yelled at me and I stop rap. I heard Rap God look it up on youtube and listen to it all the way.

Jose's point of view

"I see someone up ahead tell Marcus and them to pull over with us" I said "okay" said Eminem and wolf.

Marcus's point of view

Why are they stopping I asked myself. I Pull the car over and grab my rifle."I'll be right back" I said as I get out of the car and walk over to the other truck."Why did you guys stop?"I asked and they point at Jose a friend from my school. I walk over to them as my dad gets out of the truck and walks over to us. "Sup man" I said as I bro hug Jose. "Nothing much, just trying to get back to my group" said Jose."Okay,can me and my group join you?" I asked Jose."ya sure" Jose said. "Okay then you can go with my dad and a few other people in his truck" I said and I point to my dad's truck. We start walking to the trucks when we see a group of kids walking toward us with melee weapons out and ready for battle. I point my rifle at them. "I need back up there is people at 6 o'clock" I said. Everyone with weapons get out of the trucks (including Jose) and we walk over to the kids ready to shoot. "WAIT!!!!!" Jose yelled, "that's my group" Jose said while we all put our weapons away."Okay" I said as I get everyone else out (including Zeva). "I'm Marcus this is Maya, that's Michael,the dog's Zeva,That's Jace,That's my dad Jose,That's Wolf and that's Eminem" I said while pointing to everyone.Jose walked over to his group."This is Devin, our dog is Blue,that's Auden,that's Ralph, and that's Blake" Jose said while pointing to everyone of them."well it looks like y'all need a ride,get in the trucks" I said.We all get into the trucks and start driving.

Wolf's point of view

"Well my name doesn't need to be classified anymore I guess,my name is Brandon" I said.We all start driving going to Jackson to get the group leader's sister.

Marcus's point of view

As we pull up to Jackson I see a couple of teachers killing zombies and I see my sister with them.We pull over and the survivors get into the truck."you're welcome" I said to them as we drive."Thanks" they say to us. As we drive my dad pulled his truck into the parking lot of a gas one of the guys."it's okay we won't but if you guys want you can join us" I said to them while I put my rifle into my truck."yes please we need a big group if we want to get out of the city" he said. "What do you mean?" I asked them. "The army blocked off all the exits so that the virus doesn't spread" he said. Wolf and Eminem are out of the truck and standing next to us."The virus didn't hit here first,me and Eminem both were at the first city that was hit by the virus,I was part of the army who was sent there to control and destroy the virus before it spreads.But we failed because the whole place was already overran before we got there.I found Eminem when I walked out of that city,he had a truck so we drove here hoping it was better here but the virus hit here already and that's how I met them" Wolf said pointing to us at the end."So are you saying there is no way the army will/can control the virus?!?!?" I said."that's exactly what i'm saying" Wolf said."let's get out of the city another way" I said."How are we going to do that?" asked ???."offroading" I said as I get into the truck."well Maya we won't be going back to jackson anymore,that place is over runned by zombie children" I said."It's okay as long as we survive" she said.They get into the trucks and we start driving off road to get out of the city running over a few zombies that are in are way.

Jose's point of view

I start slowing the car down and then come to a complete stop.We had to throw the jerry cans out of the trucks.We are now all out of gas,we are also at the end of the city.We all start packing the supplies "we are going to need to walk so we need melee weapons out and ready" I said."Alright team we are going to need to move fast so be hydrated at all times" Marcus said.We all pull out hammers or baseball bats.As we walk a person in a jeep drives right pass us."Was that Allen?" Marcus asked "yeah I think that is Allen" I said.

Allen's point of view

I saw some people ahead close to my base.I'm going to need to drive past,if they don't shoot then I will know that they aren't hostile.I drive past them and they all stop and point at me as I drive by.I stop the jeep and get out.

Allen's point of view

I saw him,we all did."Allen is that you?" I yelled as loud as I can."YEAH IT IS ME!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!" he yelled back.We all started running over to him."Wow you guys have a big group" he said to Marcus."Ya it's big,this is Wolf,that's Eminem,that's Maya,that's Jose,that's devin,that's Blue, Jose's dog,then there's the rest whose names you can figure out." Marcus said."Ok,well now I know all your names" said Allen.

Michael's point of view

I was bitten but I didn't want anyone to know.I know they will kill me if they found out I was bitten."hey Allen" I said to Allen."sup bruh" he said back.We start walking to his base to sleep.We've been tired ever since the virus attack.As we walk into Allen's base I noticed there wasn't alot of supplies here.I picked a room with a lock and I started to unpack my stuff.I didn't have alot.I wasn't going to be alive much longer anyways.I went over to Marcus holding a pistol with a silencer on it."What are you doing with that?" he asked me."Come with me out back" I said to him "okay I guess" he said while we walked out back.I gave him the gun "i'm bitten,i've been bitten for awhile,now is the time for me to go" I said."Okay as long as you are really bitten" he said and he put the gun to my head.

Marcus's point of view

I put the gun to his head and shot him. pzzt! Blood rushed out of his head and his motionless body fell to the ground.

Wolf's Point of View

I hear the shot of a gun near the back of our camp. It's a good thing my hearing was improved greatly from all the training. I run back with my machete. "God dang it Marcus! I said "I wanted to kill the first person that got bit!" He quickly ran inside as I looted his body for anything I could salvage. I picked up the pistol that Marcus dropped and returned to my bunk.

Marcus's point of view

That's one less person from our group I thought about the good times we had.I walk over to his room and takes his supplies and I "I'll take your supplies for me" I said to myself.

???s point of view

I don't know what happened, not at all. One minute I was at school eating the next I was running for my life. I have 2 people with me Jasmine and Frost. I saw a base full of survivors I want to attack but Jaz and Frost needs to eat and sleep. We never ate since the virus attacked. That was 3 days ago, we walk to the base and knock on the door.

Wolf's point of view

I hear a knock on the door and I open the door."Can we please come in. We haven't slept in 3 days, we haven't eaten for 3 days. We don't have any weapons to survive out there" "???? said."Let me talk to the leader" I said to him."???? and the other 2 walk into the house and sits on the couch and waits.

Marcus's point of view

I see Wolf walk into my room."What do you need soldier?" I asked."there are 3 people here sir" he says."I'll be right there" I say and Wolf walks to the living room.I get up and gets Ralph to come with me.We walk out to the living room by the mysterious 3.

Wolf's point of view

"Stand!" I say to the mysterious 3. "Eminem and I can handle it from here Wolf." Marcus says to me. "Alright. Eminem, watch their every movement." "Will do, Sir." he replies.I go to my room and lay down.

Marcus's point of view

Me and Ralph walk over to the 3 and notice all of them."Owen,Jaz,and frost,is that you soldiers?" I ask them."Yes sir" they all say."Welcome to the club" I say and I walk away.

Jose's point of view

I walked outside and saw a horde of zombies running toward us."crap,ZOMBIES AT 12 O'CLOCK" I yelled.I pull out my rifle and machete and start shooting them.They got closer I put the rifle down and attacked them with the machete.The zombies tackled me and I get torn to pieces.

Marcus's point of view

I get up and walk outside. I search for anything left living out here. I stab all the crawlers that were left behind.

Devin's point of view

I see Blake stab amelia. I run to Wolf and tell him everything.

Wolf's point of view

I grab Blake and take him to the back of the base. Then I tied him up. When he's all tied up in an old rope, I used my machete to cut off his head. I walk back inside covered in Blake's blood and his head in my hand.

Marcus's point to view

"He did what?!?!?!" I ask/yell."He killed your sister" Wolf said."Is he dead?" I ask "yes sir" Wolf said."good" I say and I walk away.

Auden's point of view

I walk with Marcus.Everyone knows that Blake killed his sister and that zombies torn his dad apart.We lost a lot of members this week.We are about to go into are jobs.Yes we were assigned jobs.I'm a runner,Runners go into the city and find us supplies.There is farmers who grow food.Hunters go into the woods and hunt.Then there is the leader. Who is Marcus.There is also guards,Wolf and Eminem.The farmers are Jaz,Frost,Teachers.The Runners are me (always), Wolf (sometimes), Marcus (always),and Maya (always),Jose (always).The people we found before we walked here,they are all dead."Marcus is it time to go because we need new spears.Remember the last run,we dropped our spears" I tell Marcus." Right, get the poles and knives I got the duck tape" he tells me. I come back over to him with the supplies as Maya comes out of the base in her army suit. We all had army suits with helmets. I have a gas mask but no one else does. "I'll come with." Wolf says. "okay Wolf I need you to get another pole and another

Wolf says."roof and snipe them" I whisper to Wolf. "Will do sir." Wolf responds. I give Wolf the sniper. The rest of us walk over to their group.Wolf gets to the roof and snipes all of them. The rest of us search the dead bodies as Wolf runs down and joins us."I found us all gas masks" I say handing everyone a gas mask.I grab all the backpacks and put them all in the other group's truck."I wonder how they got the swat truck" I say to myself.We all get in and drive back to our base.I park the car and walk inside.

RALPH'S P.O.V.

(in the meantime in a different location)

"hey srg." at first srg. did not answer, so Lt. Ralph assembled up him and 198 other men not counting srg. that did not answer, and the u.s. marine corps continued on with the meeting, {and the marines got their communication privacy back, and that was the end of that communication interception}

Marcus's point of view

I here the communication interception."What?...was that?" I ask."I dunno" Allen says."Well we got supplies" I said.The housekeepers put all the new supplies that we got from the run away.I went into the bathroom area and I used my bottled water to clean up my face.But first i had to take off my gas mask.After the gasmask I had to take off my bandana and my sunglasses.Then I had to take off my hat.(The bandana was over my face to portect me from the cold and it looks cool that way.)I look at the bite mark on my face.I had gotten bitten when I barracded the doors when the pack of z's killed my dad.No one knows that though.I'm the only one who has survived a zombie bite.For this long at least.

The Newcomer

Ethan's point of view

"Slash Slash" I was on the highway there were close to 3 dozen zombies chasing me oh god where is safety I thought then I was in the city like 10mins later I took a quick look around then ran into a store and locked the doors. I started to look around and I looked at my revolver and saw I only had 10 shots left that would last me with 2 dozen more zombies luckily my machete was good at killing them I looked at the door and they were about to break through so I grabbed my backpack and ran through the backdoor. I looked around I must of made all the zombies go to the main doors luckley then I look

Good thing no one knew I was in the city. I took a quick look around then ran into a store and locked the doors. are close to the base.

Wolf's Point of View

"Alright let me get something straight. If any of the higher in command survivors get bit, it's my kill. If anyone lower than that gets bit, you guys can fight for it. Got it?" I asked.

"Yes sir!" everyone responded.

Marcus's point of view

I came down stairs I see everyone turn and look at me."What?" I asked "n....nothing" they all say then they turned back to what they were doing.I go over to my bunk and lay down.

Auden's point of view

"Where was he?" I asked as soon as he fell asleep "we don't know but I think someone knows" Jose said pointing to Eminem who looked kinda frightened.I get up and walk over to him."Do you know where Marcus was last night?" I asked him.He nods

"he was bite when the horde of zombies attacked" he said.

"WHAT!?!?!?!?" I yell and everyone looks at me

."Keep it down,Wolf can't know that Marcus was bitten" he says.I glance up to see Maya walk outside.We all hear a scream and look towards the door.

Marcus's point of view

I wake up to a scream and sprung into action.I grab my pistol and walk over to everyone."What is going on?" I yell a little muffled by the gas mask and bandana."Maya went outside and screamed for some reason" Auden yelled.We all turn back to the door when we hear pounding."She's dead,I can't hear her scream anymore" I yell.I look through the window "there's too many,everyone to your bunk and pack up,we will leave through the back entrance" I yell.We all start getting our stuff packed.When we are all done we quietly ran out of the exit and run away from the base.Zeva and Blue ran ahead of us well because they are dogs."I think we can stop running and walk now" I say.We slow down and walk."Where should we go?" I ask "umm how about california" Jose asks."Okay" I say,we start walking to find a car or a truck.I pull out my radio and look for any channels I come across a emergency broadcast and I stop on this next city we see that people are murdering other people to get to me. I put my hood up and ran past everyone with Zeva shortly behind me. I saw some zombies and ran into a gun shop. When we got in we saw a family scared to death and I put my hood down. "It's okay" I said and I put my hands into the air so they could see I was harmless. "You're him aren't you" said the youngest child. "Yeah, yeah i'm him, but I won't hurt you" I tell them. "I have some people who will be able to take care of you guys. I won't be helping them take care of you because people are hunting me. No one will be taking me to california" I tell them. "Yeah, but we will be" she said as she and the rest of the family pulls out guns and point them at me. "Woah woah woah, no need to point" I say and zombies burst down the door and start ripping them apart and me and Zeva run.

Wolf's point of view

"Team we need to find Marcus at all costs, After we find him we take him to california at all cost. Do not kill Marcus I repeat don't kill him" I shout. "Yes sir" they all shout and we all pull out are guns and enter the city. We start getting shot at and we duck in cover. "Also don't kill anyone, use rubber bullets so that it will hurt but won't kill anyone. I look up at the roof and see someone with a sniper. He then shoots the guy who was shooting at us. "Who was that?" we all ask "I don't know" we all say.

Marcus's point of view

Thanks for saving my team" I say "no problem, but remember they will be helping my team get ya to california" 10k tells me. "as long as I stay alive through the whole trip" I say then I stand up and so does his team and I shout and wave to my team. "Hey up here!!!!!!!!!!!" I yell to my team. They start running up the stairs while the rest of this team runs down the stairs meeting up with my team halfway up and halfway down the stairs. "To california!!!" I yell smiling. We start walking and I fall behind everyone but one person, his name is Murphy. "We need to try and escape these maniacs" he says to me. "How are we going to do that?" I asked. "Once they stop for a rest I will say I have to go to the bathroom and after a couple minutes you say you're going to look for me and we can get away" he tells me. "Sounds like a plan" I tell him. We catch up with the whole group and we talk about football and we say jokes making us both laugh. "Well it looks like

Murphy has a little idea. They go to the bathroom and everyone else laughs by the time we stopped laughing and telling jokes. "What" I ask. "I need to go to the bathroom" he says. "I'll be back in a couple of minutes" I say and then walk over to him. "Let's go" I say and we run away from them.

Doc's point of view

"Guys" I say but they don't listen."Guys!!!!!!" I yell "what doc?" 10k asked."Murphy and his little friend are getting away" I say. We start packing our stuff."Let's go after them" I say and we start walking after them.

Murphy's point of view

"I think we lost them" I say and I bend down to catch my breath."Well we should keep moving just in case" Marcus tells me."Ya ya okay,we should also look for weapons and stuff.Maybe a car or truck and food and water" I say."Okay,I know where there is a gas station,maybe we can go there to rest" he tells me."Ya we should go there" I say and we start walking there.As we get there we see a lot of zombies in are way."What are we going to do with those" I asked Marcus."I got them" he says and then he walks up to them and he starts controlling the zombies and I know he was because the zombies started to dance."So you have the cure in your blood to?" I ask."Ya now go and get the supplies and put it all into that van that's over there" I say and pointing to the van.I got the food and water and I put it all in the van.I used the gas pump and put gas into the van."Okay let's go" I yell to Marcus.I started the van and when he got in we ran over the zombies and left the gas station."Where to next?" he asks me "I don't know,I never ever made it this far before" I tell him."Well for sure we won't be going to california" I say "how about denver,I always wanted to go there"he tells me."Okay" I say and we start driving to denver.On are way there we start cracking jokes and laughing.When we got to the next city the car started to run low on gas so we stopped the car next to a apartment building.We grabbed all of our supplies and brought it into a room and we put our stuff in front of the door and locked it then we started to cover the windows so no one could see inside the buildings.I see marcus call someone on the radio after that I fell asleep.

FROST'S Point of view

I got a radio call from Marcus asking me if I can come and pick them up, I argue if I should help them and I helped only because of Marcus and how he can trust me. I pack the important stuff and head out in search for my hidden private jet. I get to the building where my jet is, as I enter the building I see that my brother left me a note saying "FROST the building got taken over by some survivors who aren't friendly at all. I look out as many as I could but left with the JAY bike. I'm heading to California to rest. See more of Story Wars when I turned around one of the survivors came and said "You better give me those keys or the JAY bike" I hit the gun up and kicked him in the gut and said "I don't think so!" and shot him in the head with his own shotgun.

and ran to the docking bay of the jet. I hopped in the jet and started it up and went to get Marcus, Murphy, and Zeva.

Murphy's point of view

I heard someone coming up the stairs asking for Marcus and me so I grabbed Marcus and Zeva and hid them in the closet I grabbed our supplies and put them in the closet then I hid in the closet and closed the door. I hold my breath when the room door opened. "Marcus Murphy are you guys in here?" "???? asked. Marcus woke up and got out of the closet. "Finally you made it" he said. "Hey who said it won't take me awhile to get here. But we need to hurry I saw the others driving here when I came in" he said. "Okay i'll get Murphy and Zeva and we can leave" Marcus says then opening the closet. I grab our supplies and Marcus grabbed Zeva. "Let's go" Marcus says. We walk outside and see the others pulling up. We ran to the jet and got ready to take off. "Go go go go go go go GO!!!!!!!!!!" I yelled as FROST started the plane. By the time we taken off the others were running over here to get us.

FROST'S Point of view

I set the jet to cruise control and went in the back to check on everyone. "Is everyone alright?" I asked, "yeah, we'r good, a couple of cuts from being thrown in the closet, but we'r good," Marcus says. I go back to the cockpit and sit back but right before I could relax Marcus came in and asked me, "where are we going this isn't the way to Denver?!" "calm down would ya," I said "I found a letter that my brother left for me at the tower, but the weird thing is that on the back of it he wrote a rhyme song that we used to sing when we used to go to nevada and pass Area 51, I think he's saying that he's really heading to Area 51," "but that can't be because that place is surrounded with military troops," said Marcus "unless you have some sorta pass to get in?" "Me and my other 3 brothers have pass's to go there, are dad works there as the co-boss and gave me and my brothers and are mom have passes, but are mom died in an car accident, and my two other brothers died with her, so it was only me and my brother and my dad, he told us if anything bad happens to go to Area 51, and well the apoc happened and well my brother JAY went there so by now he is already there we have to go to 51 first to see if my brother made it there safely," I say, "Ok but can your brother be trusted?" Marcus asked, "yes of course he can, now let's go! I set the location to Area 51 and lay back and wait.

2 days later (FROST'S POV)

I get woken up by marcus "FROST WAKE UP!" I say "What?" "Buckle up!" he says "Buckle up everyone I'm landing the jet!" I say as I land it with a little bit of shaking once we touched the ground, I pull up to the hanger and press a button that opens the hanger doors and pull in, I pressed the button again and the hanger doors close, “ Just wait they don’t know who you guys are so I will be right back ok, stay in here ok?” I say, “allright,” they all said. I open the jet door but before I stepped out Marcus stopped me and gave me a silenced pistol and said “You might need this, you know just in case they can’t remember you,” “thanks but I got myself covered,” and pulled the side of my shirt up to show him my own automatic silenced pistol and then pulled it out and loaded it and put it on safety and attached a flashlight to it and walked down the hall to the door. When I got to the door I opened it and looked around and saw my brother and my dad, “ Hey dad look who showed up!” said JAY, “FROST I thought you were dead, I am so happy to see you!” Said my dad, “yeah you too, but I have som...” but JAY cut me off and said “some friends aboard? don't worry we can trust them if you can,” I went back to the jet and told Marcus, Zeva, Murphy, and Owen that all is good and that my dad and my brother are still alive, “Ok good, now let’s go!” Owen said, “no, it’s almost night time and my jet needs to charge up so while we are here we can get are stuff and crash here for the night and tomorrow I will go and get what we need ok?” I said. So we unpack and set are stuff on are bunk’s, “Hey Marcus why did you have to go to cali anyways?” I asked Marcus, “I don’t want to and neither does Murphy.That’s why we ran away from the others” Marcus tells me.

Marcus’s point of view

I grab our supplies (Zeva’s,Murphy’s and my supplies).I get Murphy up and grab the keys to the jet. Zeva waits for me and Murphy inside it.I get buckled and start the jet.As we start to leave they see us leaving and start shooting at us so that we don’t leave.But it’s to late,”we have taken off” I say just like a pilot and we all start laughing.I set the plane on auto pilot,”we are now on are way to denver”I say like a pilot again and we fall down laughing like crazy.I fell asleep on the floor and when I woke up Zeva was licking my face and Murphy was playing video games.”How long was I asleep for?” “Awhile, I landed the jet at the airport so right now it’s charging” he says. “Okay,tomorrow we will go and get more supplies” I say.”But we can we play games till then right?” he asked.”Ya” I say while grabbing the other controller and joining him on call of duty black ops 3 zombies.

Owen's P.O.V

I have left the group. Through all the chaos, it was easy. I grabbed all of my belongings and left. I had set off for a boat, since zombies can't swim. I would have a chain of small boats for agriculture and bigger boats for animal farming and living quarters. I find several boats on my journey across the border of lake Michigan, but they are all not the type I need. I find a few wooden dinghies in a garage "Perfect." I say aloud. I load the dinghies onto a convenient nearby truck and keep it there until I find a trailer for the bigger boats. I find a trailer behind the dinghies and attach it to the truck. I start the truck's engine and go toward the docks for the carferry. I find a larger boat with living quarters but not a bigger boat for the livestock. I head toward Burger Boat in my newfound truck to make a boat fit for the livestock. On my way I find a... figure, for lack of better term. It just stands there staring at me. There are infected behind it but it doesn't even quiver in fear. When the zombies get close to it, they start to decay faster than they already were and plop on the ground before, even their skeletal structure, disappear. I stomp on the gas pedal as hard as I possibly can and book it out of there, that thing, indescribable in every way, disappears itself. I am still uneasy about stopping and decide that my plan needs to go into action now! I speed to Burger Boat but run out of gas half way there. "Well, shit." I say in disappointment as my tank goes empty. I decide to put my plan on hold for now and walk my way to the nearest restaurant for supplies. When I arrive at a Pizza Ranch restaurant, I see it again, outside the building. I see it clearly now. It is a tall figure, with a slender build. Completely black and dripping with and equally dark substance. It has occasional tentacles that stick out of it. And... Oh God! It moved toward me with tremendous speed. It walks on tentacles and makes the grass decay as it walks on it. I duck down to hide from it. I hope it didn't see me. I can't run out because I fear it will chase me down and reduce me to ash. I look out the window and it is gone, but there are a few zeds out there. I go out the door and pull out my silenced .22 pistol and shoot the zombies before they even noticed I was there.

Marcus's point of view

We started to fly to Canada where the others are. We flew right over a Pizza Ranch and saw Owen running inside it. When we landed the jet in the parking lot we grabbed our weapons and

When we got back into the jet I started up the Xbox and started to play COD Black Ops 2 zombies."Eh good thing the others aren't with us or they would take us to cali" I tell Owen."Ya they would" he says.

Owen's P.O.V

Me joining them again is just a ruse. The next chance I get, I'll escape again. Right now, I'm just going along with what they're saying. I see Murphy attempting to play a Xbox 360 on a jetliner with no access to electricity other than the engines, which can't support a gaming console. I go to the back of the jet and sit down to sort through my stuff. I eat the few slices of pizza and breadsticks that I got from Pizza Ranch."So what does this run on, gas?" I ask."No it has solar panels on it" Marcus says."That's how i'm playing this game" Murphy says.

Marcus's point of view

I see Owen about to leave."Don't leave" I say while pointing a gun to his head."Make me stay then" He says I pull the trigger. BANG! I walk over to Murphy and grab handcuffs and I cuff him."What are you doing?!?!?!?" He yells.I'm not immune to the bites,only you are,i'm a spy who was sent to capture you and bring you to california,that's also how I know how to drive a car" I say."Citizen Z Now!!" I yell as a tough guy comes out of the bathroom holding a rope.He ties Murphy up and we start flying to the rest of the group.Hopefully we make it to california using this jet I say while pointing at the gas its halfway empty/full."We most likely run out of gas after we land this thing" I say.

5 hours later

"We are here" I yell while I land the jet."Murphy remember those z's I was mind controlling was fake,they were humans" I say while I grab him.I open the door and throw him onto the ground and walk over to Allen."The job is done" I whisper to him.I walk back over to Murphy and I pick him up. "I use Murphy as a shield and pull out my pistol and point at Murphy's old group."Move any closer I will shoot him" I say while pointing at Murphy. "10k now!!" I say and He walks over bite him and start ripping him apart. I turned around and leap at 10k. He grab his sniper and hits me with the butt of it.

10k's point of view

Smack Is all I hear after hitting marcus across the face. I point my sniper at Wolf "I give you mercy" I say before shooting him in the face. I grab a rope and tie Marcus up. After I clean up the place, I open the door and walk out. I lock the door shut and board it up. "No one go into that room" I yell. "Yes sir" Everyone shouts before standing in a line. "We are going for a supply run, all of us is going to the" I get cut off by the sound of the door getting slammed against. "Like I was saying we are going to the farthest building from here so grab what you need and prepare to fight some z's" I say. I turn back to the door and see that it's going to break soon. "I'm going to need more wood to block him out" I whisper to myself. I grab my sniper and Slings the gun around my back like a one strapped backpack. I grab a couple of hatchets and put the on my belt, I grab a Machete and put it with the hatchets. Then I grab a small spear and put that on belt, then I grab 2 swords and put them in their sheaths. Then I grab a flashlight and put that on my belt then I grab a revolver and a glock 19 and put the revolver away and hangs on to the gun. "Alright everyone even if you're not done we are going NOW!!!!" I yell. I kick open the door and we start walking to the closest store which is really far from here. I start shooting the zombies that are coming to us. I pull out my machete and start stabbing and shooting the zombies. I turn when I hear a scream and sees Jose get torn apart by a zombie I shoot the zombie and run over to Jose. "I give you mercy Jose" I say before shooting him in the head. "Keep moving and that won't happen" I shout before I start running to the store which is now only a couple of blocks away. I kick open the door and shoot the first zombie in it then I stab the rest. I start gathering some supplies that we need. Then I go look for some clothes. After I find some better and cooler clothes I walk to the dressing room and get changed. When I get out the others were running up the stairs to the roof yelling zombies. I run after them and we get to the roof where I look down and see zombies crowding the entrances trying to get in. "Eminem time to sing" I yell before running. When I get to the end of the roof I jump. I land on the next roof with a roll. The rest of the group jumps onto the roof. When we start running down the stairs we hear and tosses me a water bottle,"Thank you" I say before gulping down the water.I put down the water bottle when I finished the water.I looked up and see and emergency light flashing."What's going on?" I ask the pilot(citizen z,"Something hit one of the wings,we are going down" he tells me."I'm only able to slow it down but we will still crash hard,the weak might not make it" He says.Boom the other wing gets shot off."Rocket Launcher!!!!" I yell loudly.there's enough parachutes though,only to get some of us off,we will have to leave the teachers in here" I say,"then let's do it,only a couple of casualties.I give everyone but the teachers a parachute,I look at them all frighten.I give them my parachute,"It is able to hold you 2" I say before everyone jumps off.I go to the pilot's seat and go down full force before I hit the guy I pulled up remembering Marcus is in the jet.I use the defenses and shoot the guy I then try to land as safe as possible.crash the jets hits the ground and the glass breaks stabbing me several times.

Ethan's point of view

"Someone flashlights on the person now!!!!" Yelled a familiar voice.The flashlight beam hit my face."Ethan?" said Sam "Sam,Marcus's mom is that you?" I asked."Ya,hurry get up here quick" She says before I scramble up the ladder. "Have you seen Marcus,Amelia,ot Their dad Jose?" She asked. "No,at least not during/after the infection,I saw him before it started and right when it started." I said."Well we have to keep moving before the infected get to us" She shouts.They grab out some m4's and start shooting the infected.Once they were done with that they jumped down and started running while I follow shortly after them.

Auden's point of view

"What ever happened to Marcus?" I ask,"Also where is 10k,and/or Wolf?" I ask."I don't know but we all got splittin up,we need to find Murphy before he escapes,everyone else is with the rest of the group,it's only me and you in this area" says Jose. "How do you know that?" I asked. "I got a radio call that they were all together but for us" he tells me.

FROST's point of view

"I searched the farther north west of Nevada close to Carson City but not in Carson City, I set all in the morning!" as everyone else settles in and falls asleep I snuck out and went on the rooftop and play the last message I received from Marcus and I wrote down what the last coordinate he was at and stopped the message and packed up all the gear I needed and put it in the newly designed FROST/ JAY jet and fueled it up and packed extra fuel, just as I was about to walk in the jet JAY stopped me and said "Hey FROST! You know dad doesn't like it when you sneak out like this right?" "Yah but I..." he cut me off and said "no buts I'm coming along with you I knew you were gonna do this so I had my things in the jet!" I looked at him like he was crazy and said " umm ok yah you can join me did u leave a note for dad with mine and your signature on it?" "yes and I did it the old fashion way! On paper," then he grabbed some more gear and packed it all up in the jet and we both got in. I fished the keys out of my pocket and started the jet it was quiet and we left without a sound.

Marcus's point of view

"Ugh...what happened?" I say. I shove against the door trying to get it open. I shove against with all my strength. It opens, I grab what I can salvage and take off."HELLO!!!!!!!!!!" I yelled, I find a dead body,"crap, it's citizen z" I say.

FROST point of view

"JAY! Wake up dude we landed at the checkpoint,"

Owen's P.O.V

As I come to, I realise that I am falling out of a plane. My right arm is in serious pain. I scream as I will fall most likely to my demise. I land. It is dark. I see a light and go toward it. As I come to, I find that I have fallen into a body of water that is seemingly a large pond about 20 feet deep. I try to swim toward shore, but my arm aches too badly to swim. I find a wooden board, grab it and paddle my feet toward shore. Once on land, I find that my arm is bleeding. Thank God I still have my back pack. I take some gauze and a pair of tweezers out as well as some pain meds. I take the pain medication and take the tweezers and pull out the object in my wound and wrap my arm up with gauze. I look at the bloodied object "A bullet from a 9mm pistol. The only person front of a slot next to the door. I take the card and slide it in. The door opens and I enter the lobby. Inside the lobby are four signs saying: HOLDING CELLS ->, <-EXPERIMENTAL EQUIPMENT, CAFETERIA->, and BARRACKS->. I head toward the experimental equipment section of the building and find a dead man with a lab coat with a patch on the shoulder that reads EES, Which I assume means "Experimental Equipment Staff". Ahead is an eye scanner. I take the body to it and the machine scans the man's eyes. A voice chimes "Access Granted, Welcome Doctor Birch."

"Crap" I say before turning around and run away. "Marcus, get over here now!!!!" I hear citizen z yell while chasing me. "How is he able to talk he turned into a zombie" I say to myself. I pull out my silenced pistol and climb up a ladder. I point my gun at citizen z and shoot him in the head. I pull out my walkie-talkie, "Is anyone out there, my name is Marcus i'm at a military outpost just south of canada I believe i'm in washington state, I don't know what city. I was with Murphy and i'm starting a search group to find him and the others from my group. So anyone who has a hope of a cure team up with others and make passages for my new group to get to california to make the cure from his blood, also everyone will be coming with so that means if your makeing a way for us to get there your all welcome to come with after that city or state. Again i'm in washington and anyone near me is my new group." I make it so that it makes a loop. I climb down and jump the fence into the outpost, I duck when I see army men shooting zombies. "I wish wolf was here right now he could easily kill them" I whisper to myself. I see one of them pull out there walkie-talkie, "sir we got a radio transmission from a guy named Marcus" He says. "He is meeting people here, if they come here we should shoot them dead" He continues. "Go ahead we don't need untrained people around us, they will get us killed" he says. I shoot them 2 and grab their weapons as the rest surround me, I hear a sniper shot and it kills 1 of them. Docs group kills the rest, "tell us where Murphy is now!!!!!!!" The leader shouts in my face. "I don't know we got split up, but if you help me and let me become leader we could find him, also who shot that gun I thought you guys don't have anymore snipers." "Well we found 10k and grabbed make a cure. A noble cause, but altogether futile, as even if a cure is made, killing all infected afterward is impossible. There are too many. Also there is still the matter of that demonic creature roaming around. I see a suit encased in glass (it looks like this).

I press a button that reads: CRYOGENIC RELEASE. As I do, the glass case opens and releases a cold chill as the suit “opens”, if that term applies there. I walk inside of the suit and it encases me inside. Once inside, I walk over to a smaller glass case containing a futuristic katana. I open the case and test the blade on a steel pipe. It makes the cleanest cut I’ve ever seen. I take the sheath and sheathe the katana and put it onto my hip.

Marcus’s point of view

I pick up and put on one of their suits and see department 19 written across the helmet, I put on the suit. (the helmet looks like this). (that was all I could find of the suit). I pick up their weapons and figure out how to use them, I drop those weapons and pick up their mp5 and ammo. We jump the fence and I see familiar footprints, “owen” I say quietly “what did you say?” asked 20k, “how can he be alive I shot him and threw him out of the jet, he must of hit the water and woke up” I say before following the footprints. I see owen,” Owen is that you?” I ask. Before he can answer we get surrounded and knocked out by my new group. I wake up with my weapons taken away, I look and see I still have my suit on.

Owen’s P.O.V

I wake up to find myself in a foreign location. I am stripped of my weapons including my katana and my helmet has been taken down. My head hurts. I see a man wearing a Department 19 suit, no doubt from one of the post-apocalypse settlements.

Marcus’s point of view

I feel the blood trickle down my face. I look over at Owen and see he has been hit in the eye a couple times. he has 2 black eyes. I see his eye. I use a piece of glass off the ground and cut myself. I see his eye. I sneak behind the guard and slice his throat. (it looks like this) (and this)

I see carson land and kill the group,I pick up one of there guns and shoot him in the head,I then see jay,his brother and I shoot him in the head.

Owen's P.O.V

In the midst of the chaos, I grab my katana, my silenced .22 and my dragunov sniper rifle. My suit enhances my physical abilities so I jump onto a ledge high up and flip my helmet up. I scope in on my dragunov and see that the infected were drawn toward the noise. I snipe as many as I can, but they just keep coming. I decide to stop wasting ammunition and use my katana instead. I ride the wall with my katana facing outward, decapitating all zeds in my way. Then "it" comes back, the demonic monster that I had last met before Marcus picked me up in the plane. I run up the walls and cut a hole through the ceiling with my katana. I jump out of the hole while Marcus is still fighting the zombies. He is trapped with the creature.

The end,for now
